Dated this the 9th day of January, 2007

JUDGMENT

Petitioner challenges Ext.P6. There is no dispute that Ext.P6 is revisable. I heard learned Government Pleader. He submits that Ext.P6 is revisable under Rule 8A of Chapter XIVA KER. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that urgent interim orders are required in the matter.

In such circumstances, the writ petition is disposed of as follows:

Leaving open the contentions of the petitioner, if the petitioner prefers a revision under Rule 8A of Chapter XIVA KER before the DPI, the DPI will consider the same after hearing the petitioner and all affected parties and take a decision in accordance with law within a period of two months from the date of filing of the revision. If the petitioner seeks interim relief in the revision, the DPI will pass orders in accordance with law within a period of one week from the date of filing of the application. Petitioner will produce a copy of the judgment before the DPI.
